Key developments of the ACA

- The ACA increasingly efficient and recognizable when pursuing its control competences;
- Corruption risk assessment in legislation progressively taken into account;
- Report on NACS implementation improved through civil society perspective;
- Established infrastructure for e-reporting on the NACS implementation as well as sustainable Ethics and Integrity online platform

Key vulnerabilities

- Deficiencies of the current Law on the ACA (drafting of the new Law is underway);
- Negative statistics in terms of the implementation of the NACS and its AP and lack of corresponding accountability system;
- Lack of adequate staffing and other resources;
- Unimpeded access to relevant database still being a challenge
