

Capacity Building Workshop

Tackling Undeclared Work and Hidden Economy in Southeast Europe: the Role of the Civil Society

13 December 2016

EU Info Center, Kralja Milana 7, 11000

Beograd, Belgrade

14:00 Empowering Civil Society to Tackle Governance Issues through Cutting Edge Advocacy and Research: the Case of Undeclared Work

Keynote:

Prof. Colin Williams, Sheffield University Management School, University of Sheffield

Discussion between SELDI Members and Regional Experts

15:30 Coffee Break

16:00 The Role of the Civil Society in Tackling Hidden Economy: Existing Examples and Strategies for the Future

Keynote: Dr. Peter Rodgers, Lecturer in Strategy and International Business, Sheffield University Management School, University of Sheffield

Discussion between SELDI members and regional civil society representatives

Moderator: Ruslan Stefanov, Coordinator SELDI, Marie Curie Research Fellow, University of Sheffield

17:30 Closing

This event has been organized with the financial assistance of the European Union, the Global Challenges Research Fund (GCRF) and the Economic and Social Research Council (ESRC). The views expressed during this event do not necessarily reflect the views of the European Commission, GCRF and ESRC.

